DANVILLE, VA., Sept, 22.—The ordinance committee of the City Council met to-night and took up the matter of restricting saloons in this city, which, was voted wet several weeks ago, adoption to the Council next Monday.

The committee recommends that the bars open at 6 A. M. and close at 7 P. M.; that no screens or obstructions of any order be erected; that no games of any order be erected; that no games of any kind be allowed in the bars; and that no one be allowed in the store after closing hours; and that liquor alone should be sold by licensed liquor deal-ers; thus eliminating the combination stores of bar and groceries. The right of a wife to forbid a ber-keeper to sell her husband whiskey, or a mother her son was also recommended, the penalty for any violation being a forfeiture of license was recommended.
